This communication is to confirm the voicemail received by Applicant's Attorney's Office from Charlema Grant of the Office of Petitions, indicating that there was a typographical error on the Decision on the Petition under 37 C.F.R. § 1.181, mailed March 3, 2006 (the "Decision"), which withdrew the holding of abandonment mailed January 9, 2006. Ms. Grant acknowledged that the paragraph in the Decision regarding a response filed January 17, 2005 was an error and no such response exists or was needed to be filed. Rather, as indicated in PAIR the Patent and Trademark Office does have a copy of Applicant's last filed paper, the Amendment filed on October 3, 2005.

SSL-DOCS1 1668506v1

Applicant understands that no further steps need to be taken at this time and awaits an action from the Examiner; however, should further action be required, the Examiner is respectfully requested to advise Applicant's undersigned representative of such.

Respectfully submitted,
